PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE FOR BATCH 2014

A poet, novelist and playwright named Victor Hugo wrote that “Perseverance is the secret of all triumphs.” And, fostered by your perseverance and hard work, you have definitely succeeded in your academic journey.

Congratulations, Graduating Batch of 2014!

You have finished the work, passed the tests, and proven your ability to set a goal and then achieve it. Graduation is a time to reflect on these hard-earned accomplishments but also a day for you to move further on and seek opportunities to learn more. Stretch your limits, persevere from one goal to another. You may not yet be where you want to be, but you are closer now than you were yesterday. Focus on the journey ahead. There is no telling how many miles you will have to walk while chasing your dream. Just keep on walking. Victory belongs to the most persevering (Napoleon Bonaparte).
